

Defining Dodo is a narrative short film that was inspired by shared challenges of flying freely from cagey, cultural norms of machismo. Reinaldo's childhood nickname (Dodo) carries the weight of shame in expressing himself like his idol Walter Mercado, but that quickly changes when a meaningful friendship forces him to face the mess of his deceit to soar into a life of authenticity.

Written By
ALEJANDRO VALTIERRA
Directed By
LAUREN ELIZABETH HARRIS
Co-Produced By
ALEJANDRO VALTIERRA &
LAUREN ELIZABETH HARRIS

